Herta Glaz Introduces Series

By Jim Bruha

Mr. Richard Kilmer, chairman of the college Entertainment Committee, has announced that a series of six concerts will be given during the academic year.

This year's program is exceptionally promising, bringing famous artists from the United States and Europe to the campus for the cultural entertainment of the student body. These concerts will be held in the school auditorium and will start at 8:15 P. M. The student body is strongly encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to hear the world's most beautiful music rendered by such prominent artists.

Herta Glaz

The program for this year's concert series is as follows: Tuesday, Oct. 12—HERTA GLAZ, contralto, from the Metropolitan Opera Association, The San Francisco Opera, The Aspen Festival; celebrated recitalist and recording artist. Miss Glaz gives annual sell out recitals in New York City's Town Hall. In opera she has frequently sung Brangene to Kirsten Flagstad's Isolde. Before coming to America to join the Metropolitan in 1942, she had been a member of the Vienna State Opera.

Here she will include in her program three Arias from Bizet's Carmen—"The Habanera", The Sequilla", and "The Gypsy Song"; along with selections from Gershwin's

Porgy and Bess. Her accompanist will be George Shick, the associate conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Stella Anderson

Tuesday, Nov. 16—Stella Anderson, pianist of international reputation who has appeared with leading symphony orchestras in the United States and Europe.

Julliard String Quartet

Monday, Jan. 10—The Julliard String Quartet, one of America's finest string quartets.

June Kelly

Monday, Feb. 28—June Kelly, soprano of the Philadelphia's La Scala Opera Company, who will present, in costume, "The American Scene in Song," featuring American popular songs and ballads from the 18th century to the present.

Faculty Roster Lists Eight New Members

Eight new instructors have been added to the faculty of St. Joseph's College for the 1954-55 school year. Four of these are members of the Society of the Precious Blood, one is a brother of the same society, and the other three are laymen.

Rev. William Eilerman, a native of Ohio, has studied at St. Joseph's Academy, at the Brunnerdale Seminary, and at St. Louis University. He received his B. S. degree in Commerce from St. Louis this year.

Rev. Aloys H. Feldhaus studied at St. Joseph's College and at the Catholic University in Washington D. C. Born in Louisville, Ky., Fr. Feldhaus is teaching Philosophy at St. Joseph's.

Rev. Charles R. Reuve recently returned from the University of Notre Dame where he was studying in Mathematics. He also studied at St. Joseph's College and Ohio State University. He is a native of Springfield, Ohio.

Rev. George J. Lubeley received his S. T. L. degree from the University of Friburg in Switzerland in 1947. Born in St. Louis, Mo., Fr. Lubeley will teach moral theology.

Mr. Elmar A. Walter, a native of St. Martin, Austria, is teaching Geology at St. Joseph's. Mr. Walter received his Ph. D. in Austria in 1951 and has been in this country since 1952. He was an instructor at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, Ohio before coming to St. Joseph's.

Mr. John J. Kelleher, born in Brockton, Mass., is a graduate of Stonehill College in Brockton and received his Master's degree in English from Boston College this year. Mr. Kelleher spent 18 months as a member of the occupation forces in Japan from 1946 through 1948.

Mr. Andrew J. Petro, a graduate of St. Rita High School in Chicago, received both his B. S. C. and M. B. A. in Economics from De Paul University. Mr. Petro will teach Business Law, among other courses in the business field.

Brother John Marling will be the new teacher of physics. He taught at Brunnerdale Seminary after receiving his degree from here. He is the brother of one of St. Joseph's most famous alumni, Bishop Joseph Marling of Kansas City.

Gung Ho, Men!

Marine Captain C. G. MOODY, Marine Corps Officer Procurement Officer for this area, will visit St. Joseph's College Monday, October 11th, to interview students interested in becoming Marine Officers. Captain MOODY and his staff will be on the campus from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. to discuss with students the merits of the current officer programs offered by the Marine Corps and to explain certain obligations which must be met before obtaining a commission.

The Marine Corps now makes available two separate programs in which college students may obtain commissions after graduation. A Platoon Leaders Class, open only to freshmen, sophomores and juniors, requires two 6-week summer training periods at Quantico, Virginia. A second program, the Marine Corps Officer Candidate Course, enables seniors to receive commissions by attending 10 continuous weeks of training at Quantico after graduation.

Captain MOODY, will welcome any questions about the Marine Corps in general.

Oct. 9-10 have been set aside for the annual Homecoming, centered around a gridiron contest between the Pumas and Indiana State. A sophomore sponsored pep rally in the auditorium at 8:30 p. m. will start the gale weekend. Ed Hebda and Ed Stanan will head the rally's production.

A bonfire will follow the pep rally at approximately 9:30 p. m. near the baseball field. Phil Hughly and a crew of freshmen will see that this event is successful.

Movies

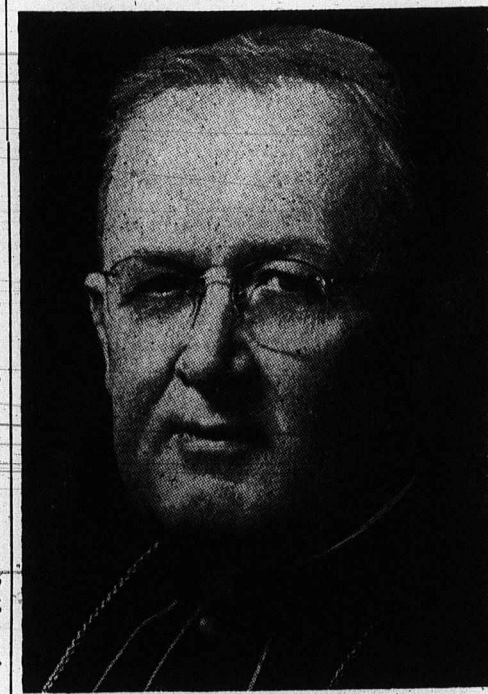

Tentative plans have been made between the school and Allied Exhibitors Company for the operation of first-run movies in the college auditorium. The Allied Exhibitors have never attempted an arrangement of this kind before and hence a number of problems remain to be solved. These deal largely with obtaining first-run films from the various film exchanges.

In general, the plans are to hold first-run movies in the college auditorium 2 or 3 times weekly, depending upon student demand on the one hand and upon the number of films available on the other. It is anticipated that admission prices to these movies would be the same as the Palace in Rensselaer. It is possible that if student attendance is large enough, a lower admission could be utilized. The price will depend on Allied Exhibitors determinations.

The college workmen have been hard pressed to fit and oversize screen on the small auditorium stage but have finally rigged a giant screen on the stage. The building of a fireproof projection booth and the installing of an extremely complicated electrical and sound system still remain to be completed before movies can be presented.

Ceremony Marks Halls Dedication

On July 1, at 3:00 P. M., another milestone in the history of St. Joseph's College was passed with the ground-breaking ceremonies for two new buildings. Bishop Bennett did the honors for the hall bearing his name, while Bishop Pursley and Msgr. Mungovan of the Fort Wayne diocese turned over the first shovel full for Archbishop Noll Hall.

Each of the new halls will house ninety-eight students and two prefects. In keeping with the government loan requirements, 80% of the buildings will be devoted to living quarters and 20% to corridors, basements, lounges, etc.

The architects are Naess and Murphy of Chicago and the contractor is E. H. Marhoefer and Co., also of Chicago. Eleven bids, opened June 8 in Raleigh Hall, ranged from the Marhoefer bid of $412,781 to a high of $506,543 for the two buildings, complete but unfurnished and unlandscaped.

Sycamores Here

Coach Bob Jauron's gridmen will meet Indiana State at 2:00 p. m. to begin Saturday's activities. The queen and her court will not be crowned until the dance.

Jimmy Stier and his orchestra will provide the music for "Football Fantasy", the theme of the Homecoming dance, from 8:00 p. m. until midnight. Midway during the dance, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned on her throne representing a football. Picture entries for queen nominations must be turned into Ed Arenz by Oct. 1. The queen will be elected by members of the faculty.

Decorations Planned

The ceiling of the intramural court will be covered with multi-colored streamers extended from the center to the four sides. A Chandelier will hang from the center of the ceiling. Jim McGuire and Jim McLaughlin will engineer the field-house decorations.

Following "Football Fantasy," the Student Council will sponsor "The Midnight Revels," with Franz Jackson and "Cookie" providing the entertainment from midnight until 3:00 a. m.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained from Earl Fortin. It is to be noted that a Revels ticket cannot be obtained unless a ticket to the Homecoming dance has been purchased. A $3.00 fee will be charged for the dance tickets and $2.00 for Revels tickets. The Revels ticket also includes a buffet supper.

Each Hall to Decorate

Each residence hall will be asked to set up a decoration centered around the football game. Information concerning these decorations may be obtained from either Jim McGuire or Jim McLaughlin.

Ed Arenz, Homecoming chairman, will be assisted by Housing Committeeman, Bob Van Horn; Publicity Committeeman, Don Socha; and others already mentioned.

Head Dietician Back On Camus

Miss Helen Skinner has returned to St. Joseph's as head dietician of the cafeteria after spending a year as dietician at West Texas State College.

Miss Skinner, who earned her B. S. degree in Home Economics at Purdue in 1940, and her M. S. degree at Columbia in 1946, is in charge of buying, preparing and serving the food in the college cafeteria.

Her first position was with Indiana University, after which she came to St. Joseph's where she performed her duties until 1953.

In an interview, Miss Skinner expressed her delight in returning to St. Joseph's, and commented that she enjoyed working at Collegeville.

Shown above is the Solemn Pontifical High Mass celebrated in the college chapel on the opening day of classes. The Most Rev. John Bennett, Bishop of the diocese of Lafayette, offered the Mass and delivered the sermon.

Pumas Have Growing Pains

Each year finds the enrollment at St. Josephs increasing, as a greater number of students realize the advantage of attending a small college in preference to a large university.

This year's increase, from 606 in Sept. of 1953 to 676 at present, has brought about an acute housing problem. To alleviate the situation, the majority of the senior class has taken up residence off campus. This move which has put the class of '55 in an extremely inconvenient position, has enabled the administration to accept a larger freshman class and give them the opportunity for a sound Catholic education.

The class of '55 has a tremendous spirit, as was shown by the senior weekend. Along with helping to ease overcrowded conditions on campus they can do much to create better "town and gown" relations by their friendliness and good example. The seniors have been asked to live off campus because the administration is confident that the class of '55 will represent the college in the finest St. Joe tradition.

In making this sacrifice the seniors are repaying the college, in part, for the innumerable benefits received in the past three years. Through their cooperation with the administration they are helping to pave the way for a greater St. Joseph's.

Your Student Council

The first meeting of the 1954-55 Student Council was held Thursday, Sept. 16, in the Noll Hall Lounge. Appropriations of committee chairmen were made and these chairmen were instructed to appoint their own committees. The appointments were: Marvin Hackman, Scholastic Committee; John Quinn, Athletic Committee; James Zid and Roger Uecker, Dance Committee; Joel Francoeur, Disciplinary Committee; and Willard Kellogg, Welfare Committee.

Nominations for the Inter-hall Committee were made by the Council and elections in the various halls will determine the inter-hall representatives. Appointed inter-hall representatives were: Ed McGovern, Ad Building; Tom Weber, Science Dorm; Pat Evard, East Seifert; and Dick Lorey, West Seifert.

Seniors to Decorate

The Council accepted the offer of the senior class to decorate the Rec Hall for the mixer with Mundelein College on Sept. 25. An agreement is to be made with Ron Gambla for a band to play at the mixers.

Ed Arenz was advanced $100 by the Council for miscellaneous expenses on the Homecoming decorations. In addition to dances and mixers, the council will also sponsor ping-pong, pinocle, bridge, and shuffleboard tournaments this year.

Scrapbook of Prom

Will Kellogg reported that the senior class will turn over to the Council $134.61 that was left from last year's prom. They will have a scrapbook of the prom made that will cost no more than $50 and ask the Council for an appropriation at a later date.

An appropriation of $120 was made to the Athletic Committee to buy prizes for the football, basketball, and volleyball tournaments. A move was made to appropriate $150 to supplement the intra-mural bowling program.

Second Meeting of Council

Another meeting of the Student Council was held on Wednesday, Sept. 22. A motion was made by John Quinn to appoint a faculty and staff board to elect the Homecoming Queen. Mr. Pupo, Fr. Maziarz, Mr. Decker, Fr. Fehrenbacher, and Brother John Bruney were nominations for the board. It was also announced that the queen will be crowned at the dance instead of at the game.

John Gorman was appointed chairman of the Midnight Revels to be held after the Homecoming Dance.

St. Joe Athletics Get New Look This Season

By John White and Chuck Vietzen

There's a new look in many things this year at St. Joe and one of those things is the athletic department. Since the coming of Coach Bob Jauron in the spring of this year, many thousands of dollars have been spent in assuring St. Joe of one of the best equipped physical development programs in the state. Not only have such things as athletic equipment been added, but also innumerable improvements have been made to the fieldhouse and the football field. This is consistent with the policy of the school to provide a better St. Joe through an extensive building program.

One of the main improvements has been in regard to the coaching staff, where, besides the addition of Mr. Jauron, Mr. Virgil Robbins has been taken on as track coach and assistant football coach. The football scouting has been improved so that as a result two separate games may be scouted on the same day.

On the material side a great many improvements have been made to the football field, the stands have been reconditioned and improved. Through the efforts of the Student Council Athletic committee headed by the ever zealous John Quinn, a free football scoreboard was obtained from the Coca-Cola Bottling Company. Future plans also see the same type of scoreboard for the baseball field, this spring.

Besides the above mentioned items a new public address system was added together with 2 new loudspeakers. Also a high tower now stands in back of the home stands in order that movies may be taken of all the games. For convenience of the spectators and the elimination of confusion, the ticket booths have been moved to a spot within a few feet of the stands.

An investigation is being conducted as to the possibilities of having a fence which would completely surround the field. It is hoped that this will be obtained for next season.

Other improvements out of doors, include the outside lights which have been added for night practice.

Not on the outside alone have improvements been made. Within the fieldhouse itself several changes have come about. The interior walls have been painted a dark red and grey. The floors have also been completely refinished. Also the upper portion of the wall in back of the intramural court has been paneled.

In the south dressing room most of the lockers have been removed and have been replaced with racks and hangers designed for the expressed purpose of accommodating football equipment. In the line of this equipment 40 new dress uniforms have been purchased. Besides these, new shoes, helmets, practice pants, hip and shoulder pads, footballs, and just in case, a stretcher, have been obtained for the whole team.

From top to bottom, inside and out St. Joe has that new look in the athletic department.

Collegeville Has Busy Summer

There's never a dull moment at Collegeville; not even in the summer time. During the period from June 1 to Sept. 1 the campus was visited by students, football teams, retreatants, sisters, servers, and members of the Alcoholics Anonymous. The usual long list of improvements and repairs kept the college staff busy, and progress was made in the building program.

Summer school enrollment this year totaled 103, including 83 sisters, six day students, and five lay students. Also included in this total were the nine geology students that made the field trip through the southwest with Frs. Nieset and Ballman.

The Canoe

By John White and Chuck Vietzen

"YAH JOHN, VE IS HERE!"

"ACH CHOLLIE, VE IS HERE!"

"UND NOW SHTUDENTS, OUR FIRST COLUMN!"

Although we're Sophomores, whom the Greeks called "wise fools", we are facing the same trials as any freshmen. We are undergoing an initiation, but one of a different type, for this is our first column and we hope not the last.

The first problem to face was that of finding a suitable name. We thought of such titles as "Vietzen's View", "Black by White", "Green Pastures with Plenty of Bull", just plain "Stuffings", and "The Fish Pond" (but we thought that was too deep), to mention just a few of the more sensible titles. After hours of deliberation we still hadn't reached a decision, so we called it "The Canoe" because we couldn't think of a name, CAN OO?

The next task at hand is to dedicate this column. We therefore dedicate it to those students who did not get their name in this issue, won't get it in next issue, and won't get in for the rest of the year.

Undoubtedly the biggest thing on campus these days, next to the astonishing rise of the Puma gridmen, is the arrival of Collegeville's greatest labor-saving device... Freshman Initiation. To the sorrow of the sophomores, it must soon pass. But while it's here we're making it a good one.

Attention! Attention! All upperclassmen are advised to wear hats or some other protective headgear, inasmuch as large flocks of birds have been seen in the cafeteria. A further caution: said birds are disguised as freshmen. Do not feed them. They'll never make it back to Capistrano.

Congrats to the senior class on the success of their football weekend. This was the first such event in St. Joe social circles and we hope it will become an annual on campus. Next year's senior class will have a big job living up to the reputation of this year's class and its accomplishments.

I am sure that the girls from Mundelein enjoyed the weekend as we enjoyed bringing it to them. Our only regret is that the fair damsels were unable to attend the pep rally "Wonderful Team." The class accomplished something that has long been needed at Collegeville, a couple of new cheers that really encouraged the team.

Plaudits too, to the team and to Coach Jauron. Whether they won or lost, it was our team and they fought every moment of the game. Although badly hampered by lack of experience, the team has proven itself rough competition for any team in the conference. We are not sports writers but we will climb out on a limb to predict that in the next few years at least, St. Joe will be one of the leading contenders in the I. C. C.

Well this is the last issue before Homecoming. We can promise you and your dates one of the finest and least expensive weekends that you will ever enjoy. Posters have been displayed at strategic points over the campus and we see by them that the social calendar will indeed be full. Rumors have it that the bonfire and the dances will be bigger than ever. And remember frosh, it's the end of initiation and you'll be accepted by the upperclassmen as social, if not intellectual, equals. Incidentally, one of the big attractions on campus during this colorful weekend will be a huge mache statue to be erected by the host sophomore class.

Paddings... Don Normandt and Pete Fenlon in a close race for the title of the man with the hair mostly likely to recede... Charlie Rohan waking up to find his suits walking around campus on freshmen... Tom Weber unable to take freshman bedcheck because of losing his flashlight... WeeWee Walker buying a hot rod with Bermuda Bells... Did you hear about St. Joe students calling a mass meeting in favor of prohibition? It was held in a Rensselaer phone booth... A mysterious woman calling Hopkins Manor every night to have the boys do her homework... Paul Gatzka leading the field for Rookie President title... Bob Companik finally getting a haircut... A freshman singing opera for Pat Hogan, Ed Arenz, and Dan Fenker... Who will be the Queen of Homecoming?... Man with the most proteges in Sophomore Court—Ed Byrne... Jim Plate sitting in French class 15 minutes before realizing it wasn't his Accounting class. It happens to others, frosh... Terry McCarthy, senior Treasurer, losing the class bank book... That's all, folks! See you at Homecoming.

priests, sisters, Christian Brothers, and 99 members of the Alcoholics Anonymous. The grand total attending retreats this summer was 603.

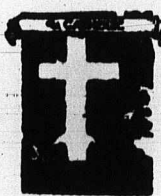

Throughout the middle of July, the college wheat and corn crops were harvested, and the Rev. Joseph Otte, college treasurer, reported that the yields were high.

The annual Servers' Day, sponsored by the college was held in July. Several hundred servers from the Lafayette and Fort Wayne dioceses attended the field day and picnic on the college grounds.

Pumas Win Opener; Tite, Klein, Bazil Star

Mr. Bob Meyne, head coach of Earlham College, is a very truthful fellow. Just before the opening of the Earlham-St. Joe game he promised to "take it easy" on the Pumas and vowed not to run up a big score. True to his words, he allowed his Quakers to score only once. Previous to this, Earlham had graciously allowed St. Joe to cross their goal five times, for a 35-7 triumph.

Shortly after the coach's promise of mercy, on the third play from scrimmage to be exact, Bill Bazil skirted left end for 10 yards and the first St. Joe touchdown. The score was set up by a 31 yard dash by fullback Clayton Klein on the first play from scrimmage.

Pumas Score Three

Three more touchdowns in the second period accounted for St. Joe's halftime lead of 28-0. At 2:12 in the second quarter, Bob Hamman took a pitchout and raced 18 yards to paydirt. Less than two minutes later, Bazil stole a stray Earlham pass and scampered for another score. And just before the half ended, Klein crashed over tackle and sped 6 yards for his first six-pointer of the season. Joe Janus, freshman guard from Cleveland, Ohio, added the four extra points in the first half.

The Pumas ended their scoring for the afternoon shortly after the second half got under way. Dan Lyman intercepted another Earlham aerial and threaded his way along the sidelines for 48 yards and a touchdown. Pete Fenlon removed the final Earlham defender on the 10 yard line with a devastating block.

Earlham Finally Scores

Earlham scored their only tally in the closing minutes when Jim Bian attempting to pass, fumbled and the ball was recovered in the end zone by Tom Marvel, an Earlham end.

Pumas Face Valpo Saturday, Play Indiana State Homecoming

St. Joe Claws Tigers 33-13 For Conference Win

St. Joseph's Pumas clawed the Tigers of DePauw University for four touchdowns in the first half and then coasted to a 33-13 victory in an ICC encounter before 1200 at Collegeville last Saturday. Scoring twice in each of the first two periods, St. Joe ground out 324 yards rushing while holding DePauw to 146.

Fullback Clayton Klein smashed one yard for the first Puma score and a few minutes later quarterback Ralph Tite raced 27 yards for another. A 40 yard pass from Tite to Dan Lyman and a 5 yard plunge by Bill Bazil gave St. Joe a 26-0 halftime lead.

The DePauw defenders stiffened in the second half and the Pumas scored only once when tackle Tom Huhn dropped on a DePauw fumble in the end zone. Joe Janus converted two of the extra points and Tite added the third.

The Tigers came to life briefly in the third period and scored on a sustained march with quarterback Don Bovari going the final yard. Their second touchdown was scored on a 7 yard run by Bud Stringfellow.

The Pumas will try for their second conference victory Saturday night when they meet Valparaiso on the Crusaders home field. Arch rival Valpo holds a string of four straight victories over St. Joe including a 45-7 triumph last year.

Intramurals

IM action will swing into high gear next week with a pre-season touch football tourney. The intramural department and the Student Council are offering individual awards to the members of the winning team.

Bowling joins the grid sport in highlighting the fall season. Two leagues have been planned for the IM action at the Maple Lanes alleys. The Upperclassmen square off on Tuesday evenings and the frosh take over in an afternoon league. Each week the men with the highest averages will represent St. Joe in the Midwest Intercollegiate Bowling Conference.

The Pumas will make their first ICC road trip as they travel to Valparaiso to meet the Crusaders on Oct. 2. The following week the Indiana State Sycamores invade Collegeville for a Homecoming tilt.

Coach Bob Jauron's crew will be all out to avenge last year's 45-7 setback at the hands of Valpo. The Valpo squad of '53 finished in second place in league standings with a record of 3 victories and two defeats. It was the first time since football competition was inaugurated in the conference that the Crusaders failed to gain the championship or at least a share of the same.

The Pumas' arch-rivals will be out to regain some of their lost glory with the aid of 15 returning lettermen and a host of freshmen. St. Joe has failed to beat Valpo in their last four tries. The all time record stands nine to six in favor of Valparaiso with two ties.

State Homecoming Foes

Indiana State will repeat their 1952 chore as the Homecoming foe of the Pumas. A first quarter field goal gave St. Joe a 3-0 half-time lead in the '52 contest, but three final half scores gave the Sycamores a 21-3 ICC victory. Last year State came from behind to defeat St. Joe 23-14 on their home field.

Coach Mark Dean, starting his fourth year at Indiana State, has brought the Terre Haute footballers from the doldrums to a contender in the Indiana Collegiate Conference during the past two seasons. The 1954 State squad should be a real threat for the league crown. Glenn Tyler, a Terre Haute senior, is the outstanding ball player of the 17 returning lettermen.

The Pumas hold a 6-4 edge over the Terre Haute college.

PUMATTERS

By Dick Obergfell

Well, the Puma football fans have finally found something to cheer about. The 35-7 route of HCC toughie, Earlham, got the grid season off to a great start. The Hoosier Conference is considered by most sporting authorities around the state as being of lower caliber than our own ICC. Even with this in mind the scribes picked St. Joe to be easy pickins for the Quakers. It looks as though the Earlham rooters weren't the only ones surprised by the Big Red's performance.

From the Sept. 11 issue of the Saturday Evening Post Mr. Fred Russell picked Butler, Valpo, Otterbein, and Ball State among others as "best of the rest" in the coming football season. The Pumas face Butler Oct. 16, Valpo Oct. 2, Ball State Oct. 30, and Otterbein Nov. 6.

Coach Jim Beane was named baseball Coach of the Year in the ICC. Mr. Beane received this honor as a result of the fine showing of the Pumas on the baseball diamond. The Puma squad compiled a 14-3 record and a 9-3 conference mark.

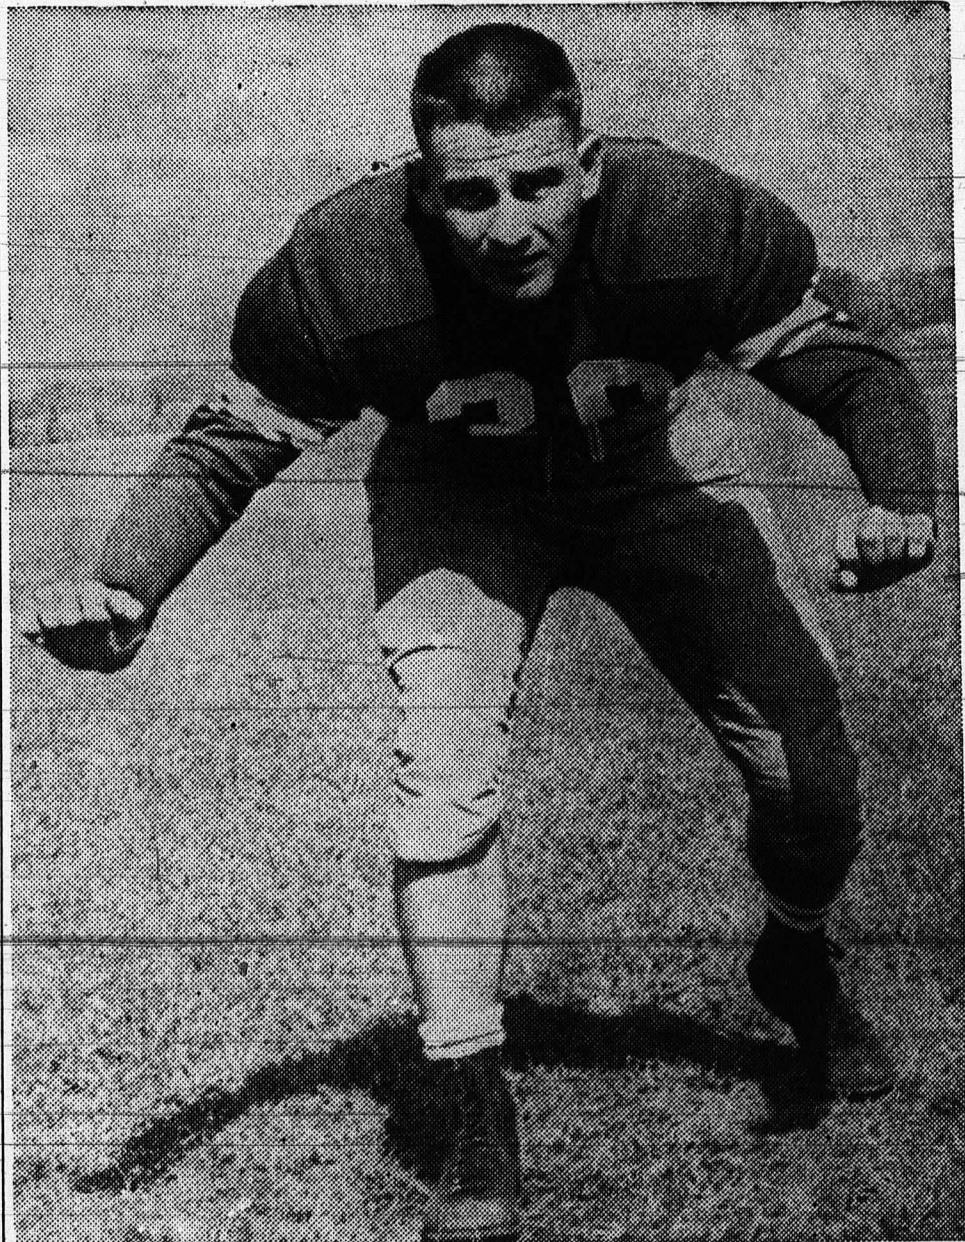

Along with the honors to Coach Beane, pitcher Dick Dwinnell was selected to the all-conference team. Dick won five games and lost two league games and had a seven and two record in all games. The Puma ace missed a unanimous selection by only one vote. Dwinnell was the only St. Joe representative on the all-star squad.

Butler's Norm Ellenberger was selected as being the most outstanding baseball player of 1954 in the Indiana Collegiate Conference. Ellenberger came through with a no-hitter against DePauw on May 5. This was the first such performance in the history of the conference. This year's selection was the first for Ellenberger as the most outstanding player of the conference. Previously, he had been named to all-conference teams in baseball and football.

Butler University repeated as the All Sports Champion of the ICC for the 1953-54 season. The Bulldogs compiled a total of 92.5 points. St. Joe finished sixth with a 41.0 mark.

The 1953 football season proved to be quite a record breaking affair. A total of 36 old records were either equaled or bettered.

Puma end Merle Effing set the conference record of catching two touchdown passes against Evansville in 1952.

John Donnelly, a 170 pound guard from Trenton, N. J., will lead the Puma line against Valparaiso Saturday in St. Joe's second ICC encounter. Donnelly, a senior in his fourth year of varsity football for St. Joe, was named the Most Valuable Player in 1952.

Frosh Face Initiation

Over 250 green-topped heads are hanging low as freshman initiation again gets into full swing. The sophomore class is now living a life of ease and experiencing the joys and comforts of a king. At last they have become the persecutors and not the persecuted.

Young, green frosh, until a few weeks ago riding high on the laurels of their senior year in high school, are now suffering the keen humiliation of being lowered to the ranks of servants, bedmakers, housemaids, window washers, and shoe shiners.

Some Frosh Uncooperative

Most of these unsuspecting men have accepted their chores willingly and realize that the main purpose of the initiation is to better acquaint them with their upperclassmen. Then there are others who fail to realize that the same men oppressing them were in the identical position only a year ago and enjoyed it no more than anyone else.

The Sophomore Court has been organized to cope with any freshmen getting out of hand or failing to answer the frequent requests of the upperclassmen. Here the violators are dealt with justly and according to the usual ethics of civil law.

Kangaroo Court

The jury is completely unbiased in giving their decisions and all offenders are given a fair chance. If the defendant can prove himself innocent, he is set free without punishment. Strangely enough, this situation never seems to present itself and the accused is often punished in some extremely violent manner.

The list of 15 rules for initiation is intended not only to lower the dignity of the frosh, but also to bring into everyday use some helpful practices for the benefit of the campus.

Senior Weekend

The St. Joe-DePauw game was only one of the events highlighting the past weekend on campus. A pep rally and skit, a tribute to the school, and a mixer added to the festivities of the season's first home game.

Friday night, the Seniors held their pep rally and skit, "Wonderful Team," in the auditorium. During the pep rally, a half hour salute to the school by bandleader Lionel Hampton was broadcast on the National Broadcasting Company.

Last Saturday, 150 girls from Mundelein College arrived on campus as guests of the Student Council. They attended the DePauw game, and that evening a mixer was held in Raleigh Hall from 9:00 to 12:30. The hall was specially decorated for the occasion by the senior class. Eddie McGovern and the College Swing Band provided the music.

Homecoming Decorations Planned
The Council appropriated $56 to the senior, junior, and sophomore classes for Homecoming decorations. The following sites were chosen for the decorations: seniors, the school entrance; juniors, around Noll Hall; and sophomores, the area around the fieldhouse.

As a result of elections in the halls, the inter-hall committee consists of: Kevin Gallagher, White House; Steve Patun, Washburn Manor; Joe Houser, Noll Hall; Dan Fenker, Gaspar Hall; and Gene Eifrid, Drexel Hall. Frank Unger was appointed chairman of the committee.

Saint Mary's Mixer at Butler

An appropriation of $50 was made as a prize to the class with the highest percentage of students making the Valpo football trip. The charge for the trip will be 75¢, including bus and game ticket. It was also announced that the girls from Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College will be invited to the Butler game at Indianapolis, and that a student trip and mixer will be arranged.

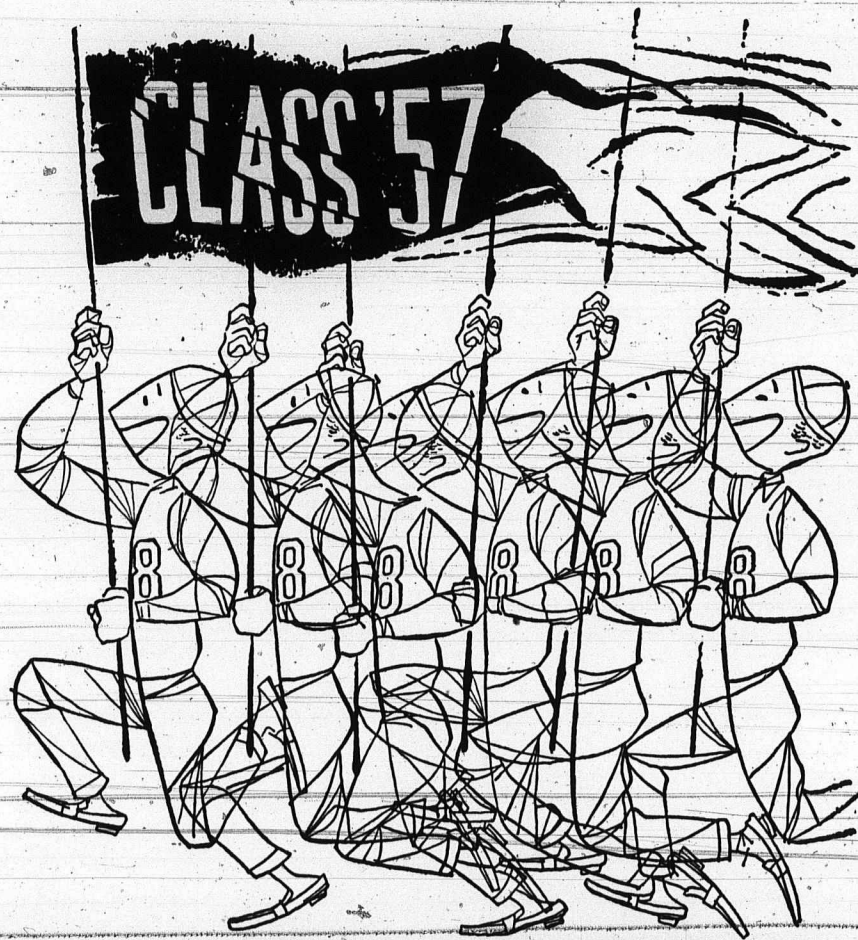

Fr. Smolar announced the following moderators for the classes: Fr. Nieset, seniors; Fr. Martin and Mr. Kelly, juniors; Fr. Kuhns and Mr. Walsh, sophomores; and Fr. Baird and Mr. Kilmer, freshmen.

St. Joseph's is again this year assessing students a Student Activity Fee. Amounting to $5.00 a semester, this fee is used solely for the social program of the Student Council. The program includes all dances and mixers, broadcasts of Puma sporting events away from campus, student trips, the intramural program, and various other social activities.

BUSY SUMMER...

Shortly after this, the Chicago Bears reported to St. Joseph's for their 11th year of summer conditioning here at the college. Some 60 odd rookies and veterans spent the better part of two months on the campus preparing for their coming season in the National Football League. Later in the month of August, football teams from three Chicago High Schools, St. Mel's, St. George, and Leo, arrived on the campus for practice sessions.
